A group of people, including men and women, are participating in a historical-themed event or tour in a cobblestone town square at dusk. In the foreground, a man in a red cap and a woman in a dark cloak are walking towards the camera. The woman is holding a lit torch. In the background, other participants in historical costumes are also holding torches. The square is surrounded by historic buildings, including a large stone building with a red-tiled roof and a church with a tall spire. The sky is overcast, and the square is wet, reflecting the lights.

Rally Driving Adventure

An aerial photograph of a large, multi-story concrete building in a state of ruin, situated in the middle of a body of water. The building has several windows and is covered in graffiti. A stone pier extends from the building into the water. Several small, orange rafts with people inside are scattered around the building, some with lights on. The water is dark and reflects the lights from the rafts and the building. The sky is dark, suggesting it is nighttime.

- A group of volunteers, mostly wearing green rain ponchos and hats, are engaged in a tree-planting activity in a forest. In the foreground, a woman in a green poncho and grey gloves holds a red bucket filled with small evergreen saplings. Next to her, a man in a green poncho, a grey baseball cap, and bright green gloves is using a blue tool to plant a sapling in the ground. In the background, other volunteers in various rain gear are also working. The ground is muddy and covered with green grass and small plants. The background is filled with tall evergreen trees.

  - + Lend a helping hand around the community
  - + Help out at Food Bank
  - + Volunteer at a Animal Centre

An aerial photograph of a golf course. On the left, a body of water borders the course. A large, vibrant green fairway leads towards a clubhouse on the right. The clubhouse is a modern building with a prominent orange facade and large glass windows. A paved area with some seating is in front of the clubhouse. A dense forest of tall pine trees runs along the right side of the course. In the foreground, there is a large sand trap. The sky is clear and blue.
